Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Sketch of Mr. Smith s Political Life Sir: A friend forwarded to me, soon after its publication, a copy of the late Frankfort Intelligencer, which contained a Letter signed by you, and addressed To the Electors of Maine. I am not at all surprised at this convulsive effort of yours to raise yourself from that dead oblivion into which you have been cast, by a series of acts of political baseness and treachery, unparalleled in the history of any other man of your limited pretensions, and who, like you, came into notice as a political pauper, and will go out of power an ingrate - an exposed, despairing and despised demagogue. That effort would, however, have been passed unnoticed by me, - as it will unregarded by those to whom it is addressed - had you not seen fit to introduce my name and business into it, and by sundry positive, direct, palpable, and known falsehoods, sought to create in the minds of those who are unacquainted with the thorough baseness of your character, a suspicion that I have treated you with ingratitude - the very part you have sustained towards those who rescued you from obscurity, only to be requited for the service in a manner to convince the most doubting, that there is such a thing as total political depravity. The number and malignity of the falsehoods relating to me, contained in your letter, and the importance you may be supposed to derive from the position which you occupy before the country, induce me to employ the first leisure moments I have been able to command since the appearance of your letter,...
