Balboa Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Meelly Finds a Family, Meelly is introduced not into a typical family, but into a home where a family has a sick daughter. In the book he learns what cancer is and what affect that it has on a young person and his or her family. He goes though everything with his new family and gets a wealth of knowledge on how to deal with and understand the different terms used in a hospital-which is all new to him, because he is not human. Meelly sometimes cannot understand what is going on, but that s what makes his new life with his sister so special; they are learning it together. Just to be there for a human is something exciting for Meelly, and he is so thankful that the kind lady picked him from the toy store.
