

The Roar of the Lion: The Untold Story of Churchill's World War II Speeches

By Richard Toye

Oxford University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Roar of the Lion: The Untold Story of Churchill's World War II Speeches, Richard Toye, "My aunt, listening to the Prime Minister's speech, remarked of "our greatest orator", "He's no speaker, is he?" -diary of teacher M.A. Pratt, 11 Nov. 1942. The popular story of Churchill's war-time rhetoric is a simple one: the British people were energized and inspired by his speeches, which were almost universally admired and played an important role in the ultimate victory over Nazi Germany. Richard Toye now re-examines this accepted national story - and gives it a radical new spin. Using survey evidence and the diaries of ordinary people, he shows how reactions to Churchill's speeches at the time were often very different from what we have always been led to expect. His first speeches as Prime Minister in the dark days of 1940 were by no means universally acclaimed - indeed, many people thought that he was drunk during his famous 'finest hour' broadcast - and there is little evidence that they made a decisive difference to the British people's will to fight on. In actual fact, as Toye shows, mass enthusiasm sat side-by-side...
