Excerpt: .et la survenance d enfants doivent couvrir le vice originaire du mariage, parce que les circonstances indiquent qu il a ete efiace par un con sentement posterieur. (Proces-verbaux) J ai epouse une femme brune qui m etait bien connue depuis six mois, et je reconnais ensuite qu elle n est pas There can be no real error in person when the individual who has been married was present, in person, at the moment when the consent was given; there is no real error in person except in the case of one individual substituted, physically, for another, and in that case alone is it right to consider the marriage null and void. (Procea-verbaux) If the error bears only on civil properties, and there is no fraud on the part of the individual in question, time and the existence of children ought to condone the original ofience, inasmuch as circumstances would appear to indicate that it has been wiped out by a subsequent agreement to the marriage. (Proces-verbaux) A man marries a dark woman whom he has known for six months and comes to learn, later, that she was not the daughter of the man whom he thought TheSame TheSame De Ferreur fille de celui que j avais cru son pere: il dans la, . personne ny a point erreur de personne, il y a mariage.
