By Cordell, Joyce

Home Crafted Artistry & Printing, 2014. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: He's been steeped in the law. Can he possibly trust this Galilean who claims to fulfill the law? What is the truth? First-century Nicodemus likes his predictable, steady life--study the law, teach the law, practice the law. He bristles at the very mention of Jesus' name. But his life is about to radically change when he journeys to Galilee where he suffers a devastating injury, only to be rescued by a dirty, smelly shepherd. How humiliating! Will this encounter become the very tool God will use to open Nicodemus' heart to the truth? After a night-time conversation with the healer, Nicodemus must decide if he will dare to venture further into the unknown or stay in his Pharisaic world. Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled. Luke 18:14. A Heart for Truth is the behind-the-scenes story of Nicodemus, another Bible character in this series of Unlikely Believers.
