This struggle; therefore, is of necessity, I think, a struggle to the death. Our antagonists against whom we are fighting to-day are acting on a certain theory of the state. This, gentlemen, I think, is one of the fundamental issues. They believe that the essence of a State is power. We believe in contrast, that the essence of a State is justice, the development of individual personality, mutual service of personalities in the State, and the service of the whole world by the State. Our enemy believes that the essence of the State is might: that there is no power superior to the State, no law of God or man that can bind the State; and that therefore the citizens of a State may do anything or everything that in their judgment will promote the power of their State. That lies behind the whole policy of frightfulness which the enemy has adopted and thoroughly practised. The enemy has so acted that the world to-day feels there can be no peace between Germany and civilization so long as Germany stands for all those elements which mean the destruction of civilization and the negation of humanity. One curious thing in connection with the whole struggle is the inability of the Germans to understand the attitude and sentiment of the rest of the world. They...
