Where in the world is Osama Bin Laden (Ill tell you) Perfect for our time, this read helps us discover our destiny for future generations by examining different world morals, beliefs, and mentalities. It says we have a choice to stand for change. It speaks to the importance of the 50 million dollar reward question, which is where do we find Osama The approach takes the direction of having fun with locations and scenarios while through the dynamic of humor shows how deadly serious this business truly is for the world. Seasoned with fresh perceptions and thinking, accountability is raised to correct the worlds political and economic problems. You are stimulated and invited outside the box to your own world of creative thinking. Deeper still with passion and urgency some of the issues of our time concerning moral standards and faith are placed in the mirror for us to see. The informative, inspiring, and controversial message will definitely have people talking while providing understanding of other peoples. In the spotlight is Americas tragic void of strong, well grounded good sense and responsible leadership. New direction must come to America and the new world order as well. The reality check is how many alarms need to sound before we answer the call. Theres no safety immunity warranty for any of us. Near and far, terror and corruption lurks to destroy. Ultimately this book serves to call ALL humanity to take a stand. We all can improve and become better! This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN.
